Escape to the lakes

Grand Hotel Tremezzo, Lake Como

Elizabeth Millard

In the shadow of the snow-covered Rhaetian Alps and nestled amongst the verdant hillsides, Lake Como is the most spectacular of the major lakes in North Italy, and a Hollywood haunt both past and present. Built in 1910, the iconic and super exclusive Grand Hotel Tremezzo is a Lake Como landmark famed for its warm hospitality, gastronomy, exquisite gardens and breath-taking views of the Lake. Greta Garbo immortalizes the hotel in the 1932 film, Grand Hotel, where she famously declared that she couldn't wait to get back to the happy, sunny Tremezzo. The hotel's 100 windows overlook the azur blue waters, surrounding lush greenery, and private beach with its infamous 'water-on-the-water' floating pool, whilst the elegant interior blends both tradition and modernity with 88 luxury rooms and 2 suites. Relax at the heavenly T spa, play tennis on the private clay court or simply lounge poolside at one of the hotel's three pools. La dolce vita.
