Be Italian

La vita is certainly bella at Villa Sola Cabiati, a neoclassical stunner overlooking Lake Como, where rooms unfold in a tapestry of frescoes, terrazzo, and gilded treasures. Last year, the estate's noble owners partnered with nearby Grand Hotel Tremezzo to open the home for tours and events, all the while embarking on updates so that guests might spend the night. As of this spring, the property is officially sleeper ready, with modern amenities installed and six bedrooms refreshed. (Rates start at $8,000 per night for the run of the place.) Still, there's one bed that's off-limits: Displayed in the villa's on-site museum is a priceless antique where Napoleon once laid his head.
